

- Test Report/calibration certificate may be required (as per customer decision) from Central Govt/NABL accredited lab to prove conformity to specification (including all technical features like resolution, accuracy, and capacity, type of standard and others)
- The separate test report from central accredited lab for the specified parts /instrument may be required during inspection of item.
- Bidder should have submitted their product catalog and specification along with bid
- Bidder should have submitted declaration to resolve problem on site within 24-48Hrs and it is applicable to both free warranty & AMC/Extended warranty duration.
- AMC/Extended warranty may be required with minimal cost after the free warranty, and the time period (year) of the AMC/Extended warranty will depend on the buyer's decision.
- Minimum one year free comprehensive warranty for all Machine /instrument parts Including software's and software should have perpetual license
- Payment will be released only after satisfactory delivery, installation, demonstration and acceptance of goods at our Institute and company/vendor has to give detailed demonstration mentioned in the technical bid during the installation.

B. Sadi